

Dear Rituraj & Gauri,

You have so aptly named this place as "Ekant". The place is heavenly and peaceful. The food served was "par excellent" with every dish so well prepared. Our compliments to all of "you", especially the staff over here. They are very polite and always cheerful. You are, obviously, taking good care of them.

The rooms are better than any five* hotel - clean and well laid out. The overall ambience is perfect for a relaxed holiday.

Request - the approach road needs attention.

Thanks so much. Will visit again

To,

Ekant. / hanci & Rituraj Dnyale.

It was nice experience to be here in Ekant. It's very quiet place. The bungalow is very good. The rooms were clean. The surrounding of the bungalow is very well maintained. The photos remind of the old era. The staff is very good and co-operative. Service is very good. The food was the best. The taste was good and variety is well planned. It was pleasure to be here and will like to be here again. All the best.
